Notes for self:

Overall, site is working well as intended.

- Think of placing the boxes of text in a different area
- Maybe separate the information in different boxes/place in a new section?
- Review the text, make sure to fix mistakes
- Have the navigation tabs change to a different color when hovering over it.
 - Also maybe make it slightly smaller?
- Maybe consider a different image for the sources page, it looks like there's an egg in the middle of it
- If there is a better way to present the information, try to execute it
